

Alicia Tan

International Careers Officer

About Me

I am a first year law student from Castle. I am interested in this position because I have always been excited about the wide range of pathways that a law degree can provide. Moreover, as an international student from Singapore, I am interested in global legal pathways. I want to increase exposure of international opportunities available to Durham law students.

Experience

Teacher's Assistant (2017-2018)

Volunteered as a teacher's assistant at the Movement for the Intellectually Disabled of Singapore (MINDS). Assisted in preparation of interactive lesson materials for two classes of students.

Co-Founder (2017-2018)

Initiated community service project in conjunction with local senior activity centres to provide care and companionship for elderly at risk of social isolation. Organised and led workshops and outings.

Volunteer (2017-2018)

Active member of the Interact Club. Worked with various childcare and elderly care centres. Promoted volunteering opportunities among the school population.

Skills

Passionate	Team Player
Determined	Creative
Hard-Working	Responsible

Proposals

- Organise events with speakers from law firms that have international branches, to provide more information about overseas placements and secondments
- Invite speakers with legal backgrounds working for international organisations and NGOs to introduce their fields of work
- Liaise with recruiting members of international organisations to increase awareness of job prospects, the application process and practical skills required